Family coloring night

Now that things have calmed down, Barnes and Noble would like to invite families into the store for a free coloring night.

Newsroom

Student finds passion in media

New Albany, Ind. native is walking in her father's footsteps as she spent her first year at Indiana State gaining new broadcasting skills with WISU and WZIS.

Indiana State flutist invited to international masterclass

Indiana State University sophomore music performance student Ricardo Gil is one of 100 flute students from around the world selected for this festival and is the youngest of eight students selected to perform in the Sir James Galway masterclass.

The Big Question: How has State's legacy changed?

There have been name changes, several mascots and a cast of new school colors, but through it all Indiana State has remained steadfast in its mission to make higher education accessible to Hoosiers for almost as long as Indiana has been a state.
