

Katie Sutrina-Haney

From: INDIANA STATE UNIVERSITY <ISU-Communications@mail.indstate.edu>
Sent: Tuesday, September 05, 2017 10:01 AM
To: Katie Sutrina-Haney
Subject: Advisory: Preachers on campus

A message from INDIANA STATE UNIVERSITY

Employees and students,

Indiana State University Public Safety advises Brother Jed will be on campus starting at 11:45 a.m. Tuesday, Sept. 5 at the Dede Plaza.

Brother Jed's messages are often controversial and offensive to many people.

Brother Jed's presence on campus is not endorsed or sponsored by Indiana State University. It is an example of free speech in a public area. Simply, our country's laws allow this protected speech.

Please understand these actions are intended to make listeners think and react. At times, people will hear the shocking messages and be offended.

For new students, this might be the first time they witness this kind of public display. Everyone has the option to listen, to exchange ideas peacefully, or to ignore the spectacle altogether.

This is not unique to Indiana State. Brother Jed and similar groups appear at colleges and universities around the country.