

From: University Marketing
To: Katie Sutrina-Haney
Subject: Incident under investigation
Date: Tuesday, September 11, 2018 10:55:39 PM

A message from INDIANA STATE UNIVERSITY

The Office of Equal Opportunity and Title IX and Public Safety are investigating allegations of a racially motivated incident in a residence hall.

Public Safety has identified a person of interest. The investigation is currently ongoing.

All incidents of discrimination and harassment should be reported directly and immediately to the Office of Equal Opportunity and Title IX. This office promptly and thoroughly investigates and responds to incidents that might potentially violate the university's non-discrimination policy. We take all incidents of discrimination and harassment seriously and will continue to respond accordingly.

If anyone on Indiana State University's campus feels unsafe at any time, he or she should contact Public Safety immediately at 812-237-5555.