NEWSROOM

Changes to Tent City, increased law enforcement among Homecoming plans

In addition to hosting meetings with on- and off-campus groups regarding Homecoming, a problem-based learning course was designed so students could help study the issues and provide recommendations.

Please 'pardon our dust' during spring commencement

Guests should use the west, south and east entrances to Hulman Center. Cherry Street is designated for handicapped-accessible drop-off and pick-up. At the conclusion of the ceremony, graduates will reunite with guests on the quad.

St. Theodore Guerin's works to be digitized

Indiana State University and the Sisters of Providence of Saint Mary-of-the-Woods are collaborating to digitize Mother Guerin's letters and journals.

ISU commencement set for May 11

Hulman Center, which is undergoing a $50 million upgrade, remains the preferred location to host commencement because of its capacity. Guests should use the west, south and east entrances. Graduates will be led to the quad at the end of the ceremony.
