Indiana State tops at attracting 21st Century Scholars

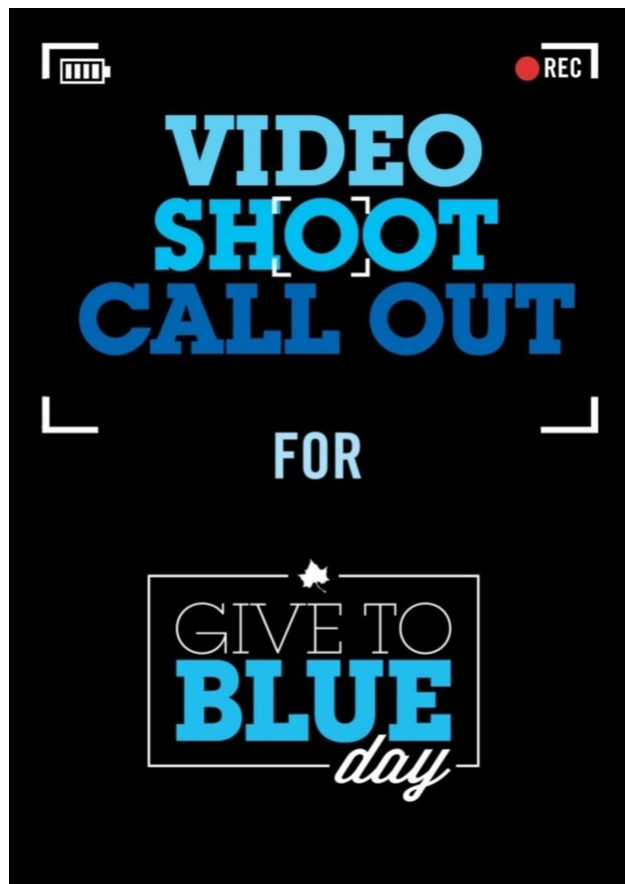

Terre Haute Tribune Star, Indiana Economic Digest

The Trib Star story, which the Indiana Economic Digest reprinted, featured Perla Vazquez, a first-generation college student and 21st Century Scholar, who is thriving as a freshman at ISU.

The 21st Century Scholars program, in its 30th year, focuses on access to college by engaging with low-income students starting in middle school and awarding scholarships for good grades and good behavior in high school.

Vazquez earned a 4.0 gpa in her first semester as an architectural engineering technology major at ISU.

She hopes to have her own business some day. More

“Indiana State University is the only institution in the state of Indiana that admitted an African American as early as 1870.”
