Terry Daugherty from University of Akron to become Dean of Scott College of Business

Dr. Terry Daugherty from University of Akron (UA) has been selected as the new Dean of Indiana State University's Scott College of Business, Dr. Michael Licari, ISU Provost, announced Monday.

Daugherty is currently the Interim Associate Dean and Director of Graduate Programs at UA's College of Business Administration. He succeeds Dr. Jack Maynard, a former ISU Provost who took over as Interim Dean last June.

Daugherty starts at ISU on July 1.

"I am excited to have Terry as a member of my leadership team, and am certain his energy and creativity will help move the Scott College of Business forward," Licari said. "Terry keenly appreciates the mission of Indiana State University, and he is committed to providing rich academic experiences for our students, developing partnerships with industry, and ensuring the Scott College of Business will remain strong into the future. I am very much looking forward to his arrival.”
