President of the Division of Student Affairs, stated in an e-mail. "Their strong relationships with the students, members, clubs, and campus colleagues will be invaluable as the Office continues moving forward."

As director, Power will oversee all facets of Campus Recreation, including operations, facilities, programs, staff development, and strategic initiatives. Power earned a bachelor's degree from Valparaiso University and a master's degree from Bowling Green State University. Prior to starting at Indiana State in 2004, she worked at Mississippi State University and the University of Notre Dame.

As associate director of programs, Dolly will provide leadership and direction for intramural and club sports, fitness, aquatics, health and safety classes, cycling, and annual programs including Trike and Tandem. She earned bachelor's and master's degrees from Southern Illinois University-Edwardsville and began her career at Indiana State University in 2009.

Both Power and Dolly were under the leadership of Campus Recreation Director John Lentz, who is retiring on June 30 after 33 years of service at
