ISU Sustainable Cities Program extends partnership with Sullivan

Indiana State University's Sustainable Cities Program, which matches community projects with experiential learning for students, is extending its partnership with the city of Sullivan, Indiana until 2022.

"Indiana State University is very pleased to be able to extend the Sustainable Cities partnership with the City of Sullivan," said Vice President for University Engagement Nancy Rogers.

"The partnership provides top-notch experiential learning opportunities for our students and allows us to strengthen our engagement in Sullivan, a community with long-standing and deep ties to ISU. I am very much looking forward to learning
