December Graduates

Upload your photo and record your name pronunciation TODAY

December graduates have until 8 p.m. tonight, Feb. 3, to upload their photos and record their name pronunciation for the winter virtual commencement. Each December graduate will have access to their very own personalized graduation web page. Graduates should personalize their pages by uploading their photo and providing their name pronunciation by p.m. on Feb. 3.

Also, friends, family, and members of the Sycamore community (faculty, staff, and students) can extend their congratulations to graduates through a new virtual platform. MORE

Bhattacharyya appointed executive director of graduate programs at the Scott College of Business

Dr. Kuntal Bhattacharyya, a faculty member in the Scott College of Business, has been appointed executive director of graduate programs.

"Kuntal has taught within our MBA program for many years and is consistently regarded by students as 'one of our best' graduate faculty," said Dean Terry Daugherty. "His academic and industry leadership experience will serve the college well as we venture into a new market, target new segments of students, and launch new offerings within our program."

Bhattacharyya is also chairperson of the Marketing & Operations Department and associate professor of Operations and Supply Chain Management. "These are challenging (albeit interesting) times with graduate education, given the changing landscape of learners and the continually expanding pathways for higher education," Bhattacharyya said. "I am excited to negotiate these challenges, as I migrate to this new role."

Interim Director of Graduate Programs Ashley Layman has been appointed assessment and accreditation coordinator.
