ISU selects Alex Allen to lead the Career Center

Alex Allen has been selected to serve as Executive Director of Indiana State University's Career Center.

Allen, who starts July 1 in his new position, was previously Assistant Director of Employer Relations and Marketing.

"Alex brings great energy and enthusiasm to this role," said Nancy Brattain Rogers, Ph.D., Vice President for University Engagement. "He is highly regarded across campus and the community. I am confident that he will do a great job of building on the current momentum in the Career Center and leading the center forward in the most positive and productive way."

Allen joined Indiana State's Career Center in 2018 as Events Coordinator and the next year became Assistant Director of Events and Marketing before being appointed Assistant Director of Employer Relations and Marketing. He has previously served as Field Marketing Strategist at

Chipotle Mexican Grill and Program Coordinator for The State University of New York (SUNY) at Potsdam's Office of Campus Life. MORE
