Pulliam interns begin reporting jobs at papers across Indiana

Hoosier State Press Association

Brea Haller, a senior majoring in Communications at Indiana State University, is one of nine college students participating in the Eugene S. Pulliam Internship Program by the Hoosier State Press Association. The program is named in honor of the late publisher of The Indianapolis Star and The Indianapolis News.

Haller has served as editor-in-chief of the Indiana Statesman where she has worked for two years. She will be at the Tribune-Star this summer for the 10-week paid internship opportunity.
