Jenner and Schaffer make IBJ's 40 under 40 list

JENNER

SCHAFFER

ISU alums Katie Jenner, GR '17, Indiana Secretary of Education, and Taylor Schaffer, '11, Chief of Staff and Chief Deputy Mayor of Indianapolis, were named to this year's class of 40 under 40 by the Indianapolis Business Journal.

The award recognizes young adults who are making an impact on their communities through their work and volunteer efforts.

Jenner, who earned an MBA from ISU's Scott College of Business, was named Indiana Secretary of Education in January. She joined Gov. Eric Holcomb's team as senior education adviser in 2019. When asked by IBJ what she learned about herself since joining the workforce, Jenner said, "While the saying goes, '99% of the things we worry about never happen,' I still find strong preparation, good relationships, a positive mindset, and adaptability are key!"

Schaffer graduated from ISU with a degree in communication. The IBJ profile about her states that she joined Mayor Joe Hogsett's campaign staff in 2015 for "an opportunity to live out my C.J. Cregg dreams," she said, referring to the press secretary on TV's "The West Wing." "Now I understand why C.J. became chief of staff after Leo left—communication is the key to understanding problems and developing solutions that can be effectively executed."
