Dillion to represent Indiana State University at Miss Indiana

Miss Indiana State University Olivia Dillion will represent the university at the upcoming Miss Indiana competition. The competition will take place on June 16-19 at the Zionsville Community High School STAR Bank Performing Arts Center.

Dillion was selected Miss ISU in October 2019 and served as an ambassador for the university while studying and leading several campus organizations. She graduated in May with academic honors and was an Alan C. Rankin Distinguished Senior Award recipient.

Dillion will be competing with 38 other women in interview, social impact initiative, evening wear, and talent for the Miss Indiana title and a portion of the $45,000 in scholarship awards.

Two other Sycamores will take part in the event: Diamond Coleman, a 2019 graduate will be competing; Miss Indiana Tiarra Taylor, a 2020 ISU graduate, will attend. MORE

ISU Board of Trustees meets Friday

Indiana State University's Board of Trustees will meet in public sessions starting at 10:45 a.m. Friday, June 18, at the State Room in Tirey Hall.

The agenda includes the Nominating Committee, the Finance Committee, and the Annual Organizational Meeting.

Due to ISU's 50 percent capacity restriction on meeting rooms, those physically present in the State Room during the public sessions will be limited to trustees, the president, governance leadership representatives, staff members directly involved in the meetings, and representatives of the media.

Others may attend the meeting virtually via Zoom in the Heritage Ballroom in Tirey Hall, where the meeting will be streamed, or from their own device elsewhere.

The meeting can be accessed using this link.
