ISU Board of Trustees meets today

Indiana State University's Board of Trustees will meet in public sessions starting at 10:45 a.m. today at the State Room in Tirey Hall.

The agenda includes the Nominating Committee, the Finance Committee, and the Annual Organizational Meeting.

Due to ISU's 50 percent capacity restriction on meeting rooms, those physically present in the State Room during the public sessions will be limited to trustees, the president, governance leadership representatives, staff members directly involved in the meetings, and representatives of the media.

Others may attend the meeting virtually via Zoom in the Heritage Ballroom in Tirey Hall, where the meeting will be streamed, or from their own device elsewhere.

The meeting can be accessed using this link.
