126 Policies and Procedures of the ISU Board of Trustees

Authority: Approved by the Board of Trustees

Last updated on: July 22, 2020

126.1 Administration

It shall be the policy of the Indiana State University Board of Trustees to administer this University in accordance with the principles of college and university administration; to maintain and protect the academic freedom of the faculty; to furnish the faculty and instructional staff opportunities for research and continuing education to the end of providing suitable educational opportunities for all qualified applicants for admission to Indiana State University and the broadest and best educational opportunities that are within the power of this Board of Trustees to procure. It is the intent of the Trustees that all University-Wide policies are considered appropriately, formally approved, promulgated in a consistent format, and maintained by the Office of the General Counsel and posted in the University Policy Library.

126.2 Agenda

It shall be the policy of this Board of Trustees to transact such business at each meeting as may be included in an agenda for the meeting, which shall be prepared by the President of the University in consultation with the President of the Board. A copy of the agenda for a meeting shall be furnished to each Board member before the meeting. Any member of the Board of Trustees may cause an item to be placed on the agenda for a meeting by written request delivered to the President of the University or the President of the Board not later than the day preceding the day of the meeting. The Board of Trustees will not consider a matter not included in the agenda for a meeting unless, by resolution adopted by the favoring votes of at least two-thirds of the members present, the Board of Trustees determines that the matter is of such a nature that it should not be deferred until the next meeting.

126.2.1 Ratification of Policies and Procedure. This Board of Trustees now approves and ratifies the policies, procedures and administrative procedures stated in the Indiana State University Handbook, as published in 1979 and thereafter revised from time to time to reflect changes and additions approved by this Board of Trustees. Two routes exist for proposing adoption of new policy or revisions of existing policy.

126.2.1.1 Primary Route. New policies and policy revisions are initiated by the campus governance units in accord with their established areas of primary authority. The area of primary authority for students is defined within Policy 165 Constitution of the Indiana State University Student Government Association. The area of primary authority for staff is defined within Policy 155 Indiana State University Staff Council Bylaws. Faculty Primary authority is defined in Policy 145 Constitution of the Faculty of Indiana State University, Section 2.2.

126.2.1.2 Secondary Route. The Board of Trustees, the University President, or the chairs of University Governance Units may initiate a request for a revision of a policy or development of new policy outside its domain or primary authority. These requests must include the appropriate rationale for the change.

126.2.2 Board Consideration. All items for consideration by the Board of Trustees must be submitted to the Office of the President at least (8) business days in advance of a Board meeting.

126.2.3 Consideration of Primary Authority Items. The Board will determine whether to adopt the proposed policy/policy revision or to seek comment from the campus prior to taking final action. If the Board seeks comments, the campus community will be informed by the General Counsel and a minimum period of 60 days shall be set aside to receive comment. The Board will then take final action after appropriate consideration.

126.2.4 Consideration of Secondary Authority Items. The Board will determine whether to accept the proposed policy or request for policy revisions/development. If accepted, the proposal shall be forwarded to the appropriate campus governance unit for review and response.

126.2.4.1 Period of Response. The Board of Trustees shall determine the appropriate response period for units to consider the proposal. The normal period of consideration shall be 60-90 days for university-wide policies, 120-180 days for academic policies, and a maximum of one calendar year for items related to constitutions. An interim report of the progress of the campus unit in consideration of the proposal may be required. If the Board determines that the progress is insufficient, it may move directly to action as defined in Section 126.4.2.

126.2.4.2 Conclusion of Response. At the conclusion of the response period, a report shall be presented to the Board. At that time, the Board may elect:

- a. To seek additional information and extend the response period,
- b. Consider the item as defined in Section 126.2.3,
- c. To request additional information or modification of the proposal, or
- d. Initiate other action including initiating them directly.

126.3 President

It will be the policy of this Board of Trustees to work through the Office of the President of the University as the chief administrative officer of the University and the President of the University will administer the University in accordance with these policies and shall be responsible for the execution of all policies of this Board of Trustees and the administration of the University. The President of the University shall be the Board's chief administrative agent on the University campus and may make such administrative arrangements as cannot well await the action of the Board of Trustees, subject to the approval of the Board of Trustees at its next regular meeting.

126.4 Faculty and Administrative Organizations

It shall be the policy of this Board of Trustees to recognize and work with the faculty and administrative organizations now in existence and operating on the campus of Indiana State University and further to consult with and counsel with through the regular academic and administrative channels on matters concerning the faculty, the University Faculty Senate and the various standing committees of the faculty organization, namely: the Administrative Affairs Committee, the Curriculum and Academic Affairs Committee, the Faculty Economic Benefits

Committee, the Graduate Council, the University Faculty Affairs Committee, the University Research Committee, the Student Affairs Committee, and the Faculty Dismissal Hearing Committee. The proposal and recommendations of the University Faculty Senate and the standing committees which require Board of Trustees approval shall be transmitted to the Board of Trustees by the President of the University with recommendations for appropriate action.

126.5 Student Government Organization
