ACCREDITATION 2010

Highlights of NCA 2010 'Mock' Visit with Dr. Reid

Dr. Robert Reid, a consultant for the HLC, visited the ISU campus on March 18, 2010 for a 'mock' accreditation visit. The main purpose of his visit was to provide feedback to the

An Overview of Dr. Reid's findings:

Dr. Reid was generally pleased with the campus wide self-study draft. He spoke positively about the content of the draft, composition of the committees and campus environmental changes. Dr. Reid provided some recommendations on how to strengthen the self-study

NCA 2010 Leadership and other members of the ISU community. Throughout the day, Dr. Reid met with several campus groups such as the NCA 2010 Core group, NCA 2010 Steering committee and the NCA Co-Chairs of the 5 Criterion committees. He also conversed with President Bradley, campus Deans, Associate Deans and Vice Presidents.

including additional charts/graphs that display information in a quicker to read format, ensuring that our list of programs matches the HLC's list of programs, integrating distance education data throughout and the need to clarify terminology that is unique to ISU and the region. He also spent time with everyone going over the Federal Compliance sections that are required in every self-study. He gave useful feedback on what the campus community should expect from the Accreditation Team members, Student assessment and Academic programs.

NCA 2010 Reminder

The NCA 2010 Accreditation self - study review team will be on campus from November 15, 2010 until Nov 18, 2010. Co -

Coordinator, Dr. Nancy Rogers and Dr. Susan Powers, are requesting that campus community personnel take note of the dates and please keep their calendars clear for those days. The 9 member review team names are located on page 2.
